El Tovar

The historic El Tovar Hotel is located directly on the rim of the Grand Canyon. The celebrated property was originally owned and operated by the Fred Harvey Company in conjunction with the Santa Fe Railway and is a designated National Historic Landmark. Today, the El Tovar retains its elegant charm and unique character with no two rooms alike. The El Tovar Dining room is the premier dining establishment at the Grand Canyon and offers gourmet dining in a casually elegant atmosphere.

Hyatt Place Page Lake Powell

Conveniently located in Page, the hotel features oversized, comfortable guest rooms and a complimentary daily breakfast. The hotel also features an on-site restaurant, a fitness center and an outdoor heated pool.

MT Sobek Camp

Rest up from your day's adventure in comfortable camps outfitted with tents and sleeping pads. Delicious food is served each night, and guests can enjoy a selection of fare before retiring to their tents for a good night's rest.

Stone Canyon Inn

Stone Canyon Inn is set on 80 acres bordering Bryce Canyon National Park. The hotel offers comfortable accommodations in a tranquil location. In the evening, Stone Hearth Grille serves upscale, fresh cuisine with panoramic views of the surrounding mountains.

Desert Pearl Inn

Desert Pearl Inn is nestled along the Virgin River in Springdale, less than one mile from Zion National Park. Native stone walkways and the sun-hued stucco walls are framed by beautiful beams hewn from a reclaimed railroad trestle that once spanned the Great Salt Lake. The comfortable rooms feature private balconies and terraces with spectacular views of the towering red-rock formations.
