Charter flight to McCarthy & Tour of Historic Kennicott Copper Mill

Early this afternoon you are transferred to the airport to board your small plane for a spectacular scenic flight into Wrangell-St. Elias National Park. Along the way enjoy exceptional vistas of the major peaks of both the Wrangell and St. Elias mountain ranges, Kennicott, Root and Gates Glaciers, Stairway Icefall, and Erie Mine. A flyby of Kennicott and McCarthy towns will give you a great view of the area you will be exploring. Throughout the flight enjoy learning about land marks and interesting facts about wildlife and human history of the region from your pilot.

This afternoon meet your private guide for an exploration of the historic Kennecott Copper Mill. The Mill was frozen in time when it was abruptly abandoned in 1938. The workers left behind their equipment and many personal belongings creating a ghost town and an amazing view into the past. Learn about the individual stories of discovery, perseverance and ingenuity of the individuals that resided and worked in the mines from your knowledgeable guide. Explore the various buildings and equipment and learn what the mine produced and how. After your tour, return to your lodge and enjoy the remainder of the evening on your own.

ACCOMMODATION: Kennicott Glacier Lodge

MEALS: Dinner

ACTIVITY: Private tour of Kennicott Copper Mill

TRANSPORTATION: 2-hour private charter flight

Full Day Fly-out Off Trail Hike

Today, start your adventure with a flight over the stunning mountains of Wrangell-St Elias National Park to a remote wilderness pass. Your pilot drops you with your guide to begin your off-trail hike through the mountains and rugged and wild lands of the Alaskan backcountry. Your guide caters the day to your interests, abilities, and energy levels. The area is known for its wildlife including caribou, Dall sheep and bear. After your adventure, return to McCarthy via bush flight and enjoy the remainder of the day on your own.

Explore McCarthy, Flight to Anchorage & Guided Tour of the Anchorage Museum

This morning you can choose to rest and relax or take the short shuttle into the nearby town of McCarthy. This unique town is very small and unassuming. It features a handful of buildings dating back to the early 1900s when it served as a place for workers in Kennicott to escape their hard lives milling and mining copper and indulge their vices on their rare day off. Afterwards, board your return charter flight from McCarthy to Anchorage.

After checking into your accommodations, enjoy a short walk to the Anchorage Museum for a docent led private tour of the facility. The Anchorage Museum is a small but mighty museum with extensive historical and cultural exhibits which your guide shares with you and helps you to understand in the context of Alaska and its peoples. Enjoy learning interesting information and facts as you walk through the art halls, and various displays.

Morning at Leisure & Flight to Lake Clark

This afternoon you are transferred to the airport for the approximately 1-hour flight to Lake Clark. Upon arrival you are driven a short distance from the airstrip to the lodge, uniquely situated on the point of a long peninsula that overlooks beautiful Lake Clark. This stunning lake is Alaska's 2nd largest and is within the boundaries of Lake Clark National Park and Preserve. After settling into your room, enjoying tonight's appetizers and a delicious dinner.

ACCOMMODATION: Lake Clark Lodge or Similar

MEALS: Dinner

TRANSPORTATION: Airport transfer, 1-hour shared flight

Fly-out Guided Tour of Katmai National Park & Bear Viewing

This morning you meet your pilot/guide for a day in Katmai National Park and Preserve in hopes of viewing some of the over 2,000 brown bears for which the park is known. Katmai is one of the most iconic bear-viewing locations in the world and a hot spot to observe bears during the salmon run. Stops today will vary depending upon where the most bears have been seen in the area and the day's weather. One stop will likely be Brooks Falls to walk the famous bear viewing platforms. These raised walkways provide a secure and unobtrusive vantage point, allowing observers to witness bears fishing in their natural habitat.

Guided Tour of Lake Clark National Park

On today's excursion you will explore Lake Clark National Park and Preserve. Encompassing over four million acres, Lake Clark National Park is a pristine expanse of land featuring mountains, volcanoes, and glaciers. Depending upon your interests, your day may be spent exploring the park's network of hiking trails, a flight to view the Lake Clark's immense stratovolcanoes, turquoise lakes, glaciers and braided rivers or Dick Proenneke's cabin at Twin Lakes. Made famous by his book One Man's Wilderness, Proenneke crafted this log cabin with his bare hands, devoid of power tools, and spent three decades living off the land in this beautiful yet harsh terrain.
