Meet Our Guides

Our expert guides and trip leaders are truly the key to our trips' success. Many are locals who live in-country year-round; others have made it their second home—all are passionate, enthusiastic and endlessly knowledgeable. Meet two of the guides that might be on your trip.

Annie was born and raised in Anchorage, Alaska. After completing a bachelor's degree in Japanese from the University of Hawaii she joined the Peace Corps. She spent the next few years teaching in a small village in Kyrgyzstan and in the Philippines. Since returning home to Alaska, Annie has spent the past few years guiding and enjoying the surrounding Chugach Mountains in her hometown. In her spare time, you can find her camping, fishing, trail running and working towards her graduate degree in occupational therapy.

Dan developed his love of the great outdoors from an early age when he became an Eagle Scout. After spending two decades working with people with disabilities, he moved to Alaska to explore his dream of living closer to nature. He quickly became an active member in the community by sitting on the Parks & Recreation board, becoming a guide and producing a radio show called, 'Get Outside and Play' to encourage recreation in the Denali area. In his spare time, Dan can be found backpacking, trail running and Nordic skiing.

Itinerary

DAY 1

ARRIVE ANCHORAGE

Arrive Anchorage and transfer to your hotel.

---

DAY 2

FLY TO WINTERLAKE LODGE FOR AN AFTERNOON OF GUIDED ACTIVITIES

After breakfast, head over to Lake Hood in Anchorage — the world's largest seaplane base. Board a floatplane on a scenic flight across Cook Inlet to a wilderness lodge that sits at the entrance to the Alaska Range. The Iditarod Trail runs through the property and on to Nome.

Upon arrival at the lodge, you'll have a brief orientation of the grounds and then enjoy some warm beverages and lunch. Staff will fit you with all the gear you'll need to explore the winter wonderland on a guided afternoon adventure.

Winter months at the lodge offer solitude, northern lights, scarlet sunrises, and warm moments by the wood stove. You'll have the option to go dog sledding and learn to drive your own team. You can also cross country ski or snowshoe through Rainy Pass. The lodge also partners with a helicopter ski company to offer heli-ski adventures in the Tordrillo Mountains during March and April (additional cost). The lodge is an official checkpoint for the Iditarod Sled Dog Race in March.

DAY 3

DAY OF GUIDED ACTIVITIES

After a hearty breakfast in the main lodge, venture out on a guided adventure or begin one of your chosen adventures. If you like, opt in to heli-skiing today and take advantage of the lodges' comfortable lounge space to relax afterward.

DAY 4

DAY OF GUIDED ACTIVITIES

After breakfast, choose your own adventure for the day or simply relax in the lodge. Perhaps head out to meet the local dog sledding team, get to know these athlete dogs, and then learn how to drive a sled.

Meals: B, L, D

DAY OF GUIDED ACTIVITIES

After a breakfast, choose your own adventure for the day or simply relax in the lodge. Today might be the day to relax and enjoy the tranquil beauty of this magical place with a guided hike in and around the breathtaking surroundings near Finger Lake.

DAY 6

DEPART WINTERLAKE LODGE AND FLY HOME

After a leisurely breakfast, bid farewell to the Alaskan wilderness and board the floatplane for your return to Anchorage. En route you may catch glimpses of Denali and Mt. Foraker - Alaska's tallest mountains - before landing back at Lake Hood seaplane base.

Upon arrival to Lake Hood, you'll be privately transferred to Anchorage International Airport to connect with your departing flight.
