➤ Cruise Cape Horn & Patagonia

Explore two of the most untouched places on the planet on a five-day luxury cruise. You'll discover the wild and windswept lands of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego, which are abundant with magical fjords and calving glaciers. Tour the massive Pia Glacier and spectacular Glacier Alley, and visit mythical Cape Horn at the southernmost tip of South America. This cruise promises to be as fascinating on board as it is on shore, with expert guides and naturalists leading interpretative seminars on the majestic glaciology, flora and fauna of the region.

Why Take This Trip With Us?

REASON #01

MT Sobek's legacy in Patagonia enables us to work with premier guides and cruise operators, including Cruceros Australis.

REASON #02

We'll take you with the only cruise company allowed to sail where the Atlantic and Pacific meet.

REASON #03

We provide Patagonia adventures of all activity levels, including this easy cruise that gets you to the heart of Cape Horn and Tierra del Fuego.

What to Expect

ACTIVITIES

Cruise through Patagonian waterways, take exciting Zodiac expeditions, and enjoy short, easy hikes.

LODGING

Spend five days aboard a small luxury expedition ship. The ships include open and comfortable public areas - accompanied by exceptional cuisine and lectures.

CLIMATE

Patagonia's weather can change rapidly. Expect sunshine, clouds, rain, wind and maybe snow. During the cruise season, temperatures fluctuate between 41F-59F.

Meet Our Guides

Our expert guides and trip leaders are truly the key to our trips' success. Many are locals who live in-country year-round; others have made it their second home—all are passionate, enthusiastic and endlessly knowledgeable. Meet two of the guides that might be on your trip.

Marcelo was born in Santiago de Chile and currently resides in the Magallanes region. He started working on Australis nearly 10 years ago and is passionate about showing Patagonia, a place he believes to be, "the most beautiful place on earth". Marcelo speaks Spanish, English, and French. He is a tremendous leader, and loves leading MT Sobek guests on the Australis to the end of the earth, and back!

Marcelo Gallo R.

Mauricio's relationship with traveling, mountaineering, and photography began at an early age in the Torres del Paine National Park. Nearly 30 years ago, he started working as a seasonal guide. His mountaineering then led him to the Pyrenees and Alps where before returning to Patagonia to focus on the natural history of the region. He joined Australis in 2005, and specializes in history, the photography of flora. He is an A.C.A. level-2 certified kayaker, a musician, and loves sports.

Itinerary

DAY 1

ARRIVE IN PUNTA ARENAS

Arrive in Punta Arenas and board your cruise ship. After a welcome cocktail reception, the ship will depart, traveling through the Strait of Magellan and Beagle Channel to explore one of the most breathtaking wilderness regions in the world: Southern Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego.

Meals: D

DAY 2

EXPLORE AINSWORTH BAY & TUCKERS ISLET

Arrive at Ainsworth Bay inside of Alberto De Agostini National Park, and view the Marinelli Glacier from a distance (weather allowing). Walk to a beaver dam in the marvelous subpolar Magellanic forest and look for elephant seals on the beach. Then, sail to Tuckers Islet and board a Zodiac to view Magellanic Penguins, which only live in the Southern Hemisphere. In September and April, this excursion is replaced by a trip to Brookes Bay, where we land for a short walk to a glacier.

DAY 3

CRUISE PIA GLACIER & GLACIER ALLEY

Cruise the Beagle Channel and enter a narrow fjord before disembarking near Pia Glacier. Take a short hike to a lookout point with a spectacular view of the entire glacier tongue, stretching from high in the mountains all the way to the sea. After this unforgettable experience, continue sailing along the northwest arm of the Beagle Channel through majestic "Glacier Alley."

DAY 4

WULAIA BAY & SAIL CAPE HORN

Sail through the Murray Channel between Navarino and Hoste islands and drop anchor at historic Wulaia Bay, an area renowned for its mesmerizing beauty, and stroll through a Magellanic forest to reach a lookout point with sweeping views. In the afternoon we cruise across Nassau Bay and disembark at Cape Horn National Park (weather permitting). This sheer, rocky promontory is known as the "End of the Earth" and is a UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve.
