Itinerary

DAY 1

JOURNEY FROM QUITO TO THE OTAVALO MARKET & HACIENDA ZULETA

This morning your guide will drive you north to visit the famous Otavalo Market — one of the largest and most colorful traditional markets in Ecuador! This is a unique opportunity to see Otavaleños selling an impressive array of locally made artisanal handicrafts. The main weekly market takes place on Saturday mornings, and a smaller market operates daily the rest of the week. Next, head to the stunning 16th-century Hacienda Zuleta, with possible stops at the villages of Agato or Peguche on the way. Upon arrival at the hacienda, take a tour of the house to learn about its historical significance and enjoy an evening of home-cooked Ecuadorian fare.

DAY 2

EXPLORE THE VALLEY OF THE CONDORS

Wake for a delicious breakfast, then head to the Valley of the Condors. This spectacular valley — considered one of the best places in Ecuador to observe condors — is part of Zuleta and can be reached on foot, by bike, or even on horseback. Zuleta runs an important captive condor program to help protect the endangered species, but you may also see magnificent wild condors and Andean bears. Along the way, your guides will explain the historical significance of the area and show you several pre-Inca pyramids and burial sites called "Caranquis". After lunch, visit the nearby community of Zuleta and see fine embroidery work and the community library — a project supported by the hacienda.

Activity: Wildlife watching & cultural touring

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 3

RETURN TO QUITO

After breakfast, follow a choice of scenic walking trails, explore the museum, or savor some of Ecuador's finest cheese — produced right here at Hacienda Zuleta! Mountain biking and horseback riding are also available for an additional cost. On your return drive to Quito this afternoon, enjoy a stop at the Equatorial Line monument near Cayambe. Arrive in Quito around 5pm.
